Wrestling Camp

Coach: Tim Hartung-Former U of M Gopher, All American, Olympic Alternate.

Tim Hartung has been an assistant coach at Iowa State and an assistant coach at the University of Iowa.

Hartung who earned the 1999 Big Ten Metal of Honor, won two NCAA and three Big Ten titles for the University of Minnesota (1996-99). The three-time all-American at 197 pounds was a member of the Gopher staff for five seasons (1999-2004). His responsibilities included strength coordinator (1999-2000), marketing and promotions coordinator (2000-02), and development coordinator (2002-04). Minnesota won three Big Ten (2001-03) and two NCAA titles (2001-02) while he was staff.

As a senior at Minnesota, Hartung posted an undefeated (39-0) season and became the first Gopher in 51 years to win back-to-back NCAA titles. He was named Big ten Wrestler of the Year in 1999, and still holds the longest win streak in Minnesota history (58).

Internationally, Hartung was an alternate on the 2004 U.S. Olympic Team. He was a 2002 World Team member, winning the U.S. Open that year.

Hartung, a native of Durand, WI, graduated with a B.S. in kinesiology with an emphasis on sports administration in 1999. He also received an M.E.D. in 2002 with an emphasis in sports administration from the University of Minnesota.
